E. P. BRYAN, Agent.

Mr. M. Stewart Cain has been promoted to city editor of the Courier-Journal.

Dr. Sam James was re-elected county physician by the County Court Monday.

Mr. Richard T. Chiles will remove to his new house on Second street, South Side, Monday.

The captain of the steamer Granite State seems to have had a revelation since the fight at Ashland.

There will be a wedding in the Elizabethtown neighborhood Thursday of next week, which will astonish the natives.

It is a little strange that no one at Ashland knows or heard of but one shot being fired at the Granite State, and that was by a boy on the wharf boat.

A post office has been re-established at Elizabethtown, in this county, under the name of Wigginton. Mr. W. S. McCord has been appointed postmaster.

The 16th of this month will be a good day for weddings in this city. We have heard of two to take place on that day, with several parties to hear from.

Dr. G. A. D. Brown has removed his family to this city, and they are occupying one of the new cottages recently built by Mrs. A. E. Stephens, on Steele street, South Side.

The Court of Appeals on Saturday reversed the decision in the case of the Commonwealth against Henry White, charged with stealing bonds from a bank in Lexington. He will now have another trial.

The County Court on Monday elected Esquire John Harrod as Common School Commissioner to succeed Col. Thos. B. Ford. Rev. L. P. Hulbert, the contending candidate, was defeated by only one vote.

Now that the Congressional election is over and very few laboring men will have a vote in the city election, won't the convicts be allowed to finish the work they began on the Boulevard a month or two since?

Saint Clair street is like a plowed field, all hills and hollows, and is a miserable place to ride over in a buggy. It should be attended to by the city or the Gas Company, who tore it up last month to lay their pipes.

Andrew T. Adams, Louisville, says: "I have used Brown's Iron Bitters for dyspepsia and exhaustion and am completely restored."

Mr. J. B. Veach is trying to organize an artillery company in this city, and has secured some twelve or fifteen names of young men who will go into it. All those who desire to join should leave their names with him.

The case of the Commonwealth against Frank Egbert, charged with the murder of Jerry Lee, was called in the Circuit Court Thursday of last week but postponed until February term. A motion was made to grant him bail, but Judge L. Hord, the special judge elected to try the case, after taking until Saturday to consider the matter, decided that it was not a bailable case.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Kentucky, A. Y. M., in session at Louisville last month surrendered to the Grand Council of Kentucky the degrees of Cryptic Masonry, and requested the last officers of that body to call a meeting for the purpose of receiving the same and resuming work. Dr. C. E. Dunn, the late Deputy Thrice Illustrious Grand Master, will comply with the request in a few days.

SKINNY MON.

"Wells' Health Renewer" restores health and vigor, cures Dyspepsia, Impotence, Sexual debility. $1.

Hall's Camphor Cure is taken internally. It acts directly upon the blood and the mucous surfaces of the system. Price 75c. For sale by Joe LeCompte, South Side.

If you want to weigh and grow fat, don't fail to go to see Renteau's Pathfinders at Major Opera House Monday evening. Read what the press has to say of them.

"They far exceed any similar combination that has ever been here."—Atlanta (Ga.) Constitution.

The company is made up of artists of ability and is one of the best and strongest on the road."—A. B. Argus.

The performance is one of many phases, and touches the risibles of the looker-on with countless drolleries and funny incidents."—Louisville Commercial.

The following were installed as officers of Capital Lodge, No. 269, I. O. G. T., at their last meeting:

Thos. J. Harris, W. C. T.

Miss Katie Mangas, W. V. T.

Jas. M. Todd, Jr., W. Sec.
